Introduction to Summer Dues

Archbishop Dermot Farrell has issued an appeal to all parishioners in the diocese for their finance support this summer.).

In a letter to all parishes in early June, he said “The necessary restriction of public worship has profoundly affected the two essential Sunday Mass collections on which parish funds depend. The first collection supports clergy ministering throughout the diocese as well as sick and retired priests and priests working in other ministries throughout the diocese.

The second collection—the ‘Share’ collection—supports diocesan services to parishes especially disadvantaged parishes. In the last financial year, the clergy collection decreased by 54% and the ‘Share’ Collection decreased by 65%. This year the situation is even more grave, with a decrease of 80% and 86% respectively for the first quarter (January to March 2021). I am grateful to all who have continued to give so generously in the past 15 months, and I have now approved the proposal to hold a new Summer Dues collection to support priests of the diocese. This initiative will follow the pattern of the Christmas and Easter dues collection giving parishioners an opportunity to contribute to the income that supports priests. The Summer Offering collection was launched on 20th June. I thank you for continuing to support our parishes and the clergy who work among you. Your generosity to this new initiative of Summer Dues will provide much-needed practical and moral support for priests working quietly and effectively at the heart of every local Community of faith.”

There are copies of Archbishop Farrell's letter and Summer Dues envelopes available in the ‘Exit Porch’ of the Church if you have not received one in the post.

Thank you to all the parishioners who have already returned their Summer Dues to the Common Fund.

Signed Mass Cards are available in the Parish Office. An offering is received with gratitude and is another means of supporting your local clergy.

If you pay for a Mass Offering online using the Donate button on our website please email the office with your intention—thank you.

We also have Thank you, Exam Result Congrats, Get Well, Birthday and ‘Thinking of you’ Mass Bouquets available.

If you would like to receive the Eucharist for a family member please call to the Sacristy Door (right of Church) after 10.15am Mass (10.40am) Monday to Friday or after 12 noon Mass on Sunday.

Dear Father and Deacon,

The advice regarding religious ceremonies published by the Government late this afternoon was as follows:

"It is advised that religious ceremonies such as Baptisms, First Holy Communions and Confirmations should not take place at this time. Further advice will follow on the resumption of these ceremonies when it is safe to do so "

I ask parishes to follow this advice in regard to the celebration of the sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

Where there are strong pastoral reasons to celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism, the family requesting it should be asked to confirm in writing the need to observe current public health guidelines.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Be a Witness of Charity

PLEASE SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE HOLY FATHER THROUGH THE

Peter's Pence Collection

JULY 3RD/4TH

Archdiocese of Dublin

The annual Peter's Pence collection takes place on the Sunday nearest to the Feast of SS Peter and Paul. This year it will be held this Saturday, 3rd and Sunday 4th July. The Peter's Pence Collection provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world.

You are aware of the growing needs, especially in mission countries, and the requests for aid that come from peoples, individuals and families in precarious conditions. Many expect Pope Francis to give them the support they often fail to find elsewhere.

In this perspective, the Peter's Pence Collection is a true and proper participation in the work of spreading the Good News, especially if one considers the meaning and importance of concretely sharing in the concerns of the universal Church.

The gesture has not only a practical value, but also a strong symbolic one, as a sign of communion with the Holy Father and attention to the needs of one's sisters and brothers on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters.

I ask for your generosity in supporting the charities of Pope Francis. This year's Peter's Pence collection will replace the second collection for Share.

I wish to thank you for the many ways you show charity and solidarity with those most in need in our common home.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dermot Farrell,

Archbishop of Dublin

Message from Archbishop Farrell

"The Task Force is about Building Hope. It started off by listening to the people of the Church in the Dublin Diocese. In hearing what they have to say it then will work together to undertake a radical renewal, being creative about our future so that we can be witnesses to the message and mission of Jesus Christ, in the years ahead."
