Statement of the Spring 2022 General Meeting of the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference

Members of the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference gathered in-person this week for their Spring 2022 General Meeting at Saint Patrick's College, Maynooth. The President of the Conference is Archbishop Eamon Martin of Armagh and the Vice-President is Archbishop Dermot Farrell of Dublin.

During their meeting bishops prayed for people who died from Covid-19 during the global pandemic, and their bereaved, as well as for families and loved ones who have suffered due to the restrictions placed on funeral rites and attendance.

At the heart of the Christian vocation is an invitation, the same invitation Jesus extended to the first disciples, to ‘come, follow me... I will make you fish for people’.” – Archbishop Dermot Farrell.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations will be observed on Sunday, May 8. That weekend, priests and parishes are invited to pray for vocations to the priesthood in the Archdiocese. The usual Share collection will be taken, rather than a collection for vocations as was incorrectly stated in Monday’s Parish Notices email.

Resources from the Office for Vocations will be distributed next week. Further information, as well as contact information for Diocesan Vocations Director Fr Séamus McEntee and Assistant Director Fr Bill

The Association of Catholics in Ireland

Invites you to a Zoom Synodal Gathering
Thursday 5th May, at 8.00 p.m.

“The synodal process is a time for speech. A time to let the voice of the Church speak and bring forward the issues, the problems that inhabit our synodal Church”.

Cardinal Mario Grech, 23rd March ‘22

What do you most want to say to the bishops who will gather in Rome in October 2023?

ACI is invited, as a representative reform and renewal organisation, to contribute our synthesis of members' and supporters' views to the National Synod. We wish to listen and represent as many perspectives as possible. We ask you, therefore, to share this invitation so that our gathering reflects the spirit of the Synod as set out by Cardinal Grech:

“..no one – no matter their religious affiliation – should be excluded from sharing their perspective and experiences, insofar as they want to help the Church on her synodal journey of seeking what is good and true. This is especially true of those who are most vulnerable or marginalized.”

BUILDING HOPE FIRST PHASE BEGINS THIS WEEK

The first phase of Building Hope towards parish renewal begins this week. From the Process and Timeline for the second and third week of Easter, April 24 to May 7:

Parish prays the Building Hope Prayer as we begin this first phase of Building Hope towards parish renewal. The Building Hope prayer can be found at <https://dublindiocese.ie/the-building-hope-prayer/>

- Parish team, parish pastoral council and parish finance committee gathers to form together the Parish Building Hope Leadership Group. The Chair of the PPC or another person chosen in their place for this role, should chair the Parish Building Hope Leadership Group.
- The group reflects prayerfully together on the Archdiocese of Dublin Statement of Mission and the Building Hope Task Force Report.
- Then the group reviews the parish profile data and resources provided and, in synodal manner, reaches a broad understanding of the direction of its response. Before coming to a final partnership determination, the parish profile material is shared widely and at a parish gathering. This is a very important part of the process intended to encourage as many parishioners as would wish to join in the dialogue and discernment.

The Parish Building Hope Leadership Group invites local animators and asks them to register on buildinghope@dublindiocese.ie.

Together they agree an appropriate date, suggested in the fifth and sixth week of Easter (May 15 to May 28), for a Building Hope Parish Gathering

The Building Hope resources, including Archbishop Farrell's Easter Pastoral Letter Living the Hope of Easter, can be found at <https://dublindiocese.ie/category/building-hope/>. A video of Archbishop Farrell reading from his pastoral letter can be watched at https://youtu.be/TdWLWj_ICEU/.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

"At the heart of the Christian vocation is an invitation, the same invitation Jesus extended to the first disciples, to 'come, follow me... I will make you fish for people'." – Archbishop Dermot Farrell.

The World Day of Prayer for Vocations will be observed on Sunday, May 8. The Archdiocese's annual collection for vocations will be taken at Masses that weekend. Diocesan vocations resources can be found at <https://dublindiocese.ie/vocations/>.

LAY MINISTRY COLLECTION – MAY 14 AND 15

The Archdiocese of Dublin Lay Ministry Collection takes place on Saturday and Sunday, May 14 and 15. The Lay Ministry Collection will support the development of a variety of lay ministries, providing for more women and men to work alongside the priests and deacons. Our hope is that lay ministry will make a significant contribution to pastoral life into the future.

Donations can be made online at <https://pay-payzone.easypaymentsplus.com/customer/10012/product-list/>.

MISSION IMPOSSIBLE COURSE

Pope Francis is urging all Catholics to understand that they are called to be missionary disciples. This calls for a different vision of what it means to be Church. In this course – ideal for members of parish pastoral councils as they look ahead – we wish to explore together this new vision through reflecting on the signs of the times, the teaching of Pope Francis and a biblical understanding of faith. Our presenters have a wide range of experience in pastoral ministry as well as being theologians, missionaries, and teachers. The course is jointly organised by Spiritan Mission Ireland and the office of Mission and Ministry in the Archdiocese of Dublin. Early registration is advisable as places are limited. For more details, and how to register, see the attached poster.
