Welcome and Hope in our contemporary world

Welcoming refugees and helping them to integrate into the new culture, respecting certain differences brings hope.

Providing the poor and marginalized with appropriate social schemes, brings hope.

Fighting for the rights of the marginalized brings hope.

Respecting people with different opinions brings hope.

In our personal lives we welcome with a smile, a warm handshake, an invitation to chat, a WhatsApp message.

Really listening and hearing others makes us hopeful for better days to come. In a world of isolation on devices this is invaluable and, of course, is the challenge we have to be welcoming as Jesus asked.
